JUDGE CRITICIZES COMPLEXITY OF LAWS

Revision of Statutes Urged by Judge Daniel Babst.

ADDRESSES LUNCHEON OF MARION ROTARIANS

Scores Business Men Generally for Indifference to Politics. Students Speak.

Complexity of state and national legal codes was criticized and business men generally were scored for their indifference to politics by Judge Daniel Babst, Crestline, former judge of the common pleas court, speaking to Rotarians at their noon luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. building today. Judge Babst urged revision of the statutes. He declared that he could prove beyond cavil that the existing system of criminal procedure dates back to the fourteenth century.

Judge Babst was a member of the state commission which recombed the laws of the state of Ohio. "One of our chief troubles today is our multiplicity of laws," he declared. "There is not a man here who can walk home from this meeting without violating some law."

Procedure Needs Revision. "In the legal records of Ohio alone there are 13,000 pages of legislative enactment and 300 volumes of reported cases with which attorneys are confronted in preparation of their cases. Our entire criminal procedure needs revision."

"Nearly 1,600 pages are required to cover the criminal features of Ohio's laws. France's combined civil and criminal codes comprise only 400 pages. In the code of Switzerland there are less than 200 pages."

"There are more courts in Ohio than in all of Great Britain. We have over 300,000 paid officials connected with our legal system. In our laws chances are all in favor of the accused. No man should demand more than fair play."

"I believe in the principle that a man is innocent until he is proved guilty. But here is the difficulty. If there is an error in our indictment we have no way of correcting it. In European courts they have the right of amendment."

"Time To Wake Up." "With these facts confronting them our busy business men complain of taxation but they fail to give to politics the attention they demand. They leave that to the fellow without interest. Until we awaken to the need of sending to the legislatures and congress men of a different type our troubles will continue."

"It is time for the thinking man to wake up. It is time for him to send the right sort of men into our law-making bodies, men with the nerve and courage to do right. We will then have a congress that is helpful, not such a one as you now witness."

Judge Babst opened his address by tracing the origin of law. "Since the creation of man there has been some sort of law, changed gradually according to the environment of man as he progressed," he declared.

Traces Development. The earliest courts and laws Babst attributed to the Egyptians. He traced the development of codes through the various phases of civilization up to the present time. The jury system and many of the laws upon which modern courts are founded, according to the speaker, found their source in the teachings and practices established by Moses during the wanderings of the Israelites in the wilderness.

Charles Petree and Arthur Dowless, student representatives of Lincoln Memorial university, Harrogate, Tennessee, near Cumberland Gap, were present at the meeting. Mr. Petree spoke briefly outlining the work of the school, which was founded to help extend educational facilities to the youth of the southern Appalachian highlands.

Miss Elsie Johnson, of No. 120 Park boulevard, was operated on this morning at the City hospital.

Reports Property Stolen. W. O. Edwards, colored, of No. 131 Railroad street, Galien, telephoned the local police department this afternoon stating that the two suits of clothes, an overcoat, a hat, pair of shoes, razor and thirty-two caliber automatic had been stolen from his room. He was certain that the thief either came to Marion or Mansfield and stated he would be here this afternoon to assist in the search for his property.

ADMITS FIGURES MAY BE WRONG

Secretary Mellon Says Bonus Estimates Speculative.

SENATOR HAWLEY ON COST OF LAND GRANTS

Value of Farm Land in United States Would Give Each Soldier $46,500 Farm.

Washington, March 14.—Subjected to a severe grilling which at times became pointedly sharp, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon admitted to the house ways and means committee this afternoon that the estimates of the cost of a soldier bonus "were largely speculative" and that his principal objection to the bill was the "indefinite knowledge" which any one had of the actual amount which the government would have to pay if the pending bill became law.

Cost of Bonus. Representative Hawley, Republican, of Oregon, told Mellon that his "Mellon's estimate of the cost of the bonus if all the soldiers accepted the land settlement provision, was equal to the value of all the agricultural land in the United States, Canada, Central and South America, Mexico and Australia."

Mellon had put this cost at $185,625,000,000.

Hawley told him that all the farming land in the United States was worth only $60,000,000,000 and if the secretary's estimates were correct, each soldier would get a farm worth $46,500, while the average value of an American farm was $5,500.

Representative Hawley characterized Mellon's estimate of the cost of the bonus "manifestly unjust and incorrect."

"If we bought all the farms in the United States for the soldiers who claim that method of payment, it would only cost the government less than one-third of the amount estimated," Hawley declared.

Under a hot cross-free of questions, Mellon declared that, unlike Comptroller Calkins, he would not advise banks not to loan money on the proposed certificates.

The proposed credit plan, he admitted, was not a menace to national banks but he did not regard the paper as good commercial paper.

"The additional money borrowed under this plan," he said, "is not a class of commercial paper the banks should handle, but I would not advise against it."

Based on Actuary's Figures. Mellon told the committee that his estimate was based upon figures obtained by a Mr. McCoy, the treasury actuary.

Other members of the committee interrupted Mellon's interrogations, declaring it evident that his inquiries were intended to "discredit the testimony of Mr. Mellon in all phases of the bonus."

Hawley denied that this was his intention.

Replying to a question of Representative Copley, Republican, Illinois, Secretary Mellon said he did not know what were the present assets of the national banks or what was the amount of their outstanding loans. He could not tell therefore, how the banks would be affected by the drain on them which would follow enactment of the bonus bill.

Representative Fear, Republican, of Wisconsin, demanded of Mellon what method he would propose, if any, for a bonus bill.

Prefers Sales Tax. The secretary suggested that the only plan he had in mind was a sales tax, not a general sales tax, but one somewhat similar to the Canadian sales tax. Such a tax could be spread over a large number of commodities.

"The taxes are as irksome now as the country can well bear," said the secretary.

"Any additional taxes must be very light on the commodities which carry them."

Mellon admitted in effect that the issuance of the bonus certificates might be a temporary stimulus to business, but he fears that in the end there would be "reaction and waste."

He said also that the deposit of the certificates with the banks for loans would lead to inflation if the banks held the certificates as reserve.

Mellon explained in detail and at some length his estimates of the cost of the bonus. His explanation was frequently interrupted, however, by interrogation from committee members.

Comptroller of the Currency Calkins, who was examined by the committee next, admitted he differed with Secretary of the Treasury Mellon as to the advisability of banks accepting the proposed certificates as security for loans. He declared he had publicly stated he would advise banks against accepting the certificates and said that despite Mellon's differing with him, he would again issue the warning.

DRY DISTRICTS BEING PLANNED

Yellowly To Be in Charge, Says Haynes.

DIVISIONS TO BE UNDER OWN CHIEF

Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, Except Northern Peninsula, Are in the Tenth District.

Washington, March 14.—Commissioner Haynes announced a division of the country into 18 districts as the enforcement territories of the federal force of general prohibition agents.

E. C. Yellowly, chief of general prohibition agents, will be in direct charge of the districts.

Each of the divisions, Haynes said, will be in charge of a divisional chief, who will be under direct control of the prohibition commissioner, acting through Mr. Yellowly.

By April 1, he added, it is expected there will have been a complete reallocation of the general agent's forces in accordance with the new plan.

"The force of general prohibition agents," he said, "under the direction of divisional chiefs will not in any manner be a part of the forces working under the supervision of federal prohibition directors, but will be a separate and distinct organization wholly under the control of the prohibition commissioner. Of course, it is understood that the purpose is that the work of these men shall supplement the work of the field forces operating under the direction of the state directors and will be a very great aid in the respective districts in their work."

Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, except the northern peninsula, are in the tenth district.

Probing Report of Fraud. Columbus, March 14.—The federal department of justice is probing the report that fraudulent promises of employment at Muskegon, Michigan, have been made to many persons, according to word received by federal authorities here.

It is claimed that the promise of employment is made on condition that one dollar be paid as a "registration fee."

James Ceren, Columbus, secretary for the United States civil service commission, has warned the public not to pay money to persons promising such employment.

In Common Pleas. The suit of the Washburn-Crosby company against the (Hastford) Baking company for a judgment in the sum of $668.25 claimed to be due on a branch of contract, is being tried before Judge J. W. Wright, of Troy, in the common pleas court today, a jury being waived. The plaintiff company is represented by Scofield, Durfee & Harder and the defendant company of Attorney W. P. Meloney.

ADMITS HAVING ELEVEN WIVES

Indianapolis Man Confesses to Marriages.

IS HELD ON BIGAMY AND THEFT CHARGES

Says Blow on Head When Boy Makes Him Irresponsible for His Actions.

Indianapolis, March 14.—Confessed "husband" of at least eleven women, Isaiah Moore, church member and social leader in the towns where his numerous marriages occurred, today faced prosecution on charges of bigamy and embezzlement.

Meanwhile Moore is trying to recall the names of two of his eleven or more "wives" and the alias under which he married some of the others. His only excuse for his actions, according to detectives, is that he has for years been a victim of nervous disorders, induced by a blow on the head with a baseball bat when he was a boy. He is now thirty-two years old.

Admits Marrying Eleven. Moore admits he married these women within the last five years: First—Flora Dolf, at Wyoming, Pennsylvania.

Second—Amelia Werner, Detroit, Michigan.

Third—Sue Harris, Houma, Louisiana.

Fourth—Dessie (last name not recalled), Wilson, North Carolina.

Fifth—Gertrude (name also forgotten), Findlay, Ohio.

Sixth—Laura Shields, Spokane, Washington.

Seventh—Florence Johnson, David City, Nebraska.

Eighth—Helen Hardgrave, Augusta, Kansas.

Ninth—Irene Hale, Chicago.

Tenth—Laura Hertzberg, Peoria, Illinois.

Eleventh—Harriet Evans, Vincennes, Indiana.

"There may have been one or two before that," he said today.

"I don't remember."

It was Miss Evans or Mrs. Moore No. 11, who brought about Moore's arrest. Miss Evans, now a high school teacher in a northern Indiana town, said they were married at Vincennes and came to Indianapolis and that after less than a week of married life, Moore deserted her and departed with $500 of her money.

Operatives of a detective agency who traced Moore to Logansport, thence to Minneapolis, where he had become superintendent of a baking plant, declared he was engaged to marry a Minneapolis girl. Their marriage was to have occurred today, they said. During the brief interval here, he remained with the detectives. Moore proposed marriage to three women.

After being returned here from Minneapolis, Moore was held several days at a hotel before he was turned over to the police and slated for bigamy and embezzlement, following his exposure by Miss Evans.

He admitted, according to the detectives, that he fled from his wife. Because he lived here with Miss Evans, authorities said, prosecution will take place in Indianapolis.

REBELS ARE BEATEN IN SOUTH AFRICA

Government Troops in Control of Situation.

London, March 14.—The situation in the South African Union is reported to be well under control.

The prompt quelling of the disorders was largely due to the free employment of bombing airplanes to disperse the rebels and drop food and ammunition to besieged loyalists.

Johannesburg, which on Saturday was invested on three sides, is at the present time quite safe. Krugerdom, the western limit of the fighting, has been captured by the troops. The Pretoria-Germiston railway line is still being contested, but with the capture of Benoni and Dunsward announced it is believed most of the resistance has been overcome.

General Smuts, the South African premier, after a perilous automobile tour in the battle area, being shot at and having a narrow escape, has himself taken personal charge of the situation at Johannesburg. He expresses the opinion that peaceful conditions will soon be re-established.

Publishers Protest. Washington, March 14.—The American publishers conference, representing 20,000 newspapers and magazines, today appealed to congress for relief from excessive burdens imposed by high postal rates in the war revenue bill of 1917. The publishers contended that the existing rates were intended as a war emergency and that the failure to repeal them is "highly discriminatory and unjust" to the reading public.

NEW TRIAL TO BE GIVEN TO ROGERS

Supreme Court Reverses Act of Lower Court.

Columbus, March 14.—A new trial will be accorded John Rogers, Irondale, convicted of killing William Anderson, of that city.

This decision was announced today by the state supreme court.

The Lawrence county common pleas court found Rogers guilty of second degree murder. The appellate court, however, reversed judgment on error.

The supreme court overruled a motion by the state for leave to file a petition in error relative to the appellate court's judgment.

WALTER HART ATTEMPTS SUICIDE AT COUNTY JAIL

Alleged Forger Tries Four Times To End Life.

PRISONER TWICE TRIES TO HANG SELF

Cuts Artery in Arm Once and Also Attempts To Swallow Crushed Light Bulb.

Walter Hart, alleged forger held in the county jail pending action of the grand jury, has made four unsuccessful attempts to commit suicide since Saturday night, it became known today. Twice he has attempted to hang himself, once he tried to cut an artery in his arm and once he attempted to swallow glass obtained by crushing an incandescent light bulb. But for the intervention of fellow prisoners at least three of his efforts to win release in death would have been successful. Sheriff Frank Washburn frustrated his other attempt to destroy himself.

Hart made his first attempt to commit suicide late Saturday night when he slashed his right arm with a piece of glass, obtained by breaking a window. Blood streaming from the wound attracted the attention of fellow prisoners, who summoned Sheriff Washburn.

The man was weakened by loss of blood but he was given attention too promptly to permit serious results.

The prisoners again prevented Hart from carrying out his design when he hanged himself about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, after making a rope out of sheets. They pulled him down and took the rope away from him. An hour later Sheriff Washburn entered the big room where the prisoners are confined and found the man preparing to hang himself again. He had made another rope out of his bed clothes. The sheriff took everything away that might be of assistance to Hart in his efforts to kill himself, but Monday night he managed to gain possession of an electric bulb. He had crushed the glass into fine bits and was just about to swallow them when several of the prisoners interfered.

Hart is held on charges growing out of the alleged theft and subsequent alteration of checks amounting to $255 drawn on the Sawyer Sanatorium, where he was employed as a handy-man. He is charged with having stolen the checks from outgoing mail. After erasing the original names and inserting his own, it is charged, he converted them into cash and disappeared.

Hart was arrested at Oakdale, Iowa, under suspicion of having committed a similar crime there but was brought back to Marion after it was decided that a much stronger case existed against him here.

No guard is employed at the county jail under present provisions, it is said, and the entire responsibility for the jail rests with Sheriff Washburn. Cooperation of prisoners prevented Hart from being successful in three of his attempts. The most careful guard that can be maintained is now being kept to prevent him from making a fifth attempt on his life.

CYCLONE KILLS ELEVEN PERSONS

Twister Destroys Property in Southern States.

McAlester, Okla., March 14.—Ten persons were dead and five others were reported missing today at Gowan, a small mining town near Heartsboro, where a cyclone dated the southwestern part of the town during the night. Over twenty injured had been removed to Heartsboro and Wilberton for treatment.

The "twister" completely wrecked twenty homes and scattered the debris over a wide area. Most of the dead and injured were Mexicans. A Mexican family and one woman were among those still unaccounted for at noon today.

One Killed in Baton Rouge. New Orleans, La., March 14.—West Baton Rouge and Iberville parishes were swept by cyclones today which killed one person, injured eight and destroyed many buildings.

One woman was killed and eight persons injured and ten houses demolished at Sunrise, West Baton Rouge parish.

At Sunshine, Iberville parish, the Golden Gate plantation was damaged to the extent of $1,000 but no one was injured.

BRUNEN ONCE SHOT HIS WIFE

Slain Circus Man Attempts a Murder.

WIDOW TELLS STORY OF THEIR RELATIONS

Was Drinking and Lost Reason. Kills Man, but is Exonerated—Murder a Mystery.

Mount Kelly, N. J., March 14.—Mrs. John T. Brunen, widow of the late circus man, who was slain in the identical manner as William Desmond Taylor, of Los Angeles, today admitted that her husband had wounded her with a revolver during a quarrel.

Sitting within a few feet of the flower-heaped coffin of her husband, Mrs. Brunen for the first time gave her version of the tragedy. She was aroused by stories reflecting upon her attitude and said she wished to give her side to stop them if she could.

"I am perfectly aware of the stories that are being told about me," said Mrs. Brunen.

"They are being inspired evidently by some one who seeks my undoing. It is because of them, I decided to break my silence."

"I am as much in the dark as to the identity of the man who killed my husband as everybody else. I suppose every man who has been successful in business has made enemies."

Admits Shooting. Mrs. Brunen then admitted that she had had quarrels with her husband. One of them, she said, ended with her lying on the floor with a bullet wound in her right side and her husband standing over her with a smoking revolver in his hand.

"My husband was good and a kind man when he was not drinking," said the widow.

"When he was drinking he was like a man bereft. We lived happily together for many years. My husband was a wonderful man and I loved him dearly. I am going to spend every cent I possess to run down the person who killed him."

"My husband once killed a man in Sunbury, Pennsylvania, but was exonerated on the ground of self-defense. I am not speaking ill of the dead when I say this, but I wish to show that he had a very quick temper and probably made enemies as a result of it."

"I did not see my husband shot. I heard the shot. I ran into the room and my husband was lying on the floor. I know of no motive and I have no idea as to the identity of the slayer. But I am going to find out if I can."

The Woman Behind The Wash Board

KNOWS WHAT HARD WORK IS

Perhaps you're one of the untold hundreds who, week in and week out, year after year, have slaved over the old fashioned wash-board—hoping, wishing, praying you could escape the grind and worry of blue Monday—yet never knowing how easily this could be accomplished. Wash day, with the Motor High Speed, is a pleasure—not a worry. You can rest in an easy chair and with the slightest physical effort send the clothing on the cleansing journey—rub them top, bottom and sides—loosen every atom of dirt—while the four winged wooden dolly—churning 320 gallons of hot, soapy water into them every minute, removes it almost instantly. Bed clothing or the finest laces—no matter—it washes them all perfectly, easily, quickly. Like to try the Motor High Speed four or five weeks—free? You'll never give it up because it fills the bill.

COUNCIL ASKS GATES FOR RAILROAD CROSSINGS

Instructs Clerk To Ask State Commission for Appliances.

ACTS TO STOP WORK ON MARION COUNTY BANK

Charges Bank Taking Part of Sidewalk—Ordinance to License Tax Defeated.

The matter of making application to the state utility commission for gates or safety appliances at the city railroad grade crossings, the advisability of starting a number of street improvements, the question of licensing bus owners and taxicab drivers, the charge that the Marion County Bank company is converting sidewalk property to its own use and several other matters of importance kept the city council in session last night. All of the members were present and the lobby was well filled.

Councilman George B. Orr stated that the bank was getting out on the walk and after a general discussion of the matter and on advice of the city solicitor the director of public service was instructed to stop the men from building on the walk or cause their arrest. This also brought up the idea of having other obstructions on the street, alleys and other public places abandoned, the drive being to rid the city of outside open stalls which take up much of the walk. The service director was also instructed by motion to order all such obstructions removed.

By motion the clerk was instructed to request the state utility commission to provide for gates or proper safety appliances at railroad crossings in the city as follows: Greenwood street, State street, Main street, Prospect street, Oak street, Kenton avenue, West Center street at the Erie and Big Four, on the Pennsylvania and Hocking Valley at the Center street, Columbus street and Bellefontaine avenue and on the Erie at Bennett street.

Give Ordinance Reading.
The ordinance providing for the licensing of motor buses and regulating their operation was given one reading. The provisions do not seem to meet the satisfaction of council. The amount of the license fee was not put in and the amount of surety or fines was left for the decision of the council, so that the reading does not make it the start of the legislation on the measure.

The ordinance provides that the owners of buses shall make application to council for a license and furnish the routes, time of operation and number to be operated and that no license shall be issued for a period less than a year. The owner is required by the measure to furnish a surety bond or have a liability policy to meet damage suits that might arise and they must haul all passengers who properly conduct themselves and pay the correct fare.

It further provides that the buses have no ingress and egress and that the drivers shall come to a complete stop at railroad grade crossings and go to the track to ascertain if there is a train approaching.

Councilman Mead said he was not in favor of the ordinance to tax buses when the men were trying to make a living and not license the freight haulers. He said he did not believe in class legislation and that the buses were a good thing. Councilman Merkel expressed a similar opinion and said that so far as street cars were concerned they could get in opposition with the buses. Both councilmen believed that the ordinance had merits such as relates to the stops and the entrances and exits and believed they should be placed under bond but did not believe they should pay a fee.

Deport Taxi License Bill.
The ordinance to license taxicabs was much on the same line as the bus ordinance and provided for a limited charge of fifty cents in the city. One taxi driver said that this fee would not cover the expense of a trip on Lee street or to some other points. The operator of the bus line on Silver street expressed opposition to the license system and ordinance it was lost. Member Orr cast the only affirmative vote.

An ordinance was adopted repealing an ordinance passed in 1912 authorizing the sinking fund trustees to select a clerk and fix his salary. The clerk of the sinking fund draws a wage of $75 a year for handling the money in the fund and performing some important duties and it was thought that this work could be added to the duties of the city auditor.

The ordinance was adopted. By the provisions of the ordinance no garage shall be constructed closer to the walk in the residence section than the houses and they shall not be built within 500 feet of a church or school. No curb shall be cut or drive built for a garage where three-fourths of the buildings on both sides for a distance of 500 feet are used for residence purposes without first securing the written consent of two-thirds of the property owners in question. The ordinance does not apply to the garages now in operation as long as they are not abandoned for garage purposes for a period of six months.

Given First Reading.
Ordinance to provide for the issuing of bonds in the sum of $95,475 to pay the property owners' portion and in the sum of $11,281 to pay the city's portion of a number of proposed street improvements were read the first time. These bonds are to be dated not later than March 1, 1922, and are in the denomination of $1,000 each, being payable in blocks and the last three being due and payable September 1, 1923. The kind of improvements, their location, the cost and also the cost of the construction by the front foot as fixed in the respective assessment ordinances are as follows:

Sidewalks.—Cheney avenue, west side from the end of the present walk to Osgood street, $852, an assessment of $120 a lineal foot; Cheney avenue, east side from lot No. 7441 to Osgood street, $1,495, an assessment of $125 a lineal foot; Herman street, south side from Davis street to Uncapher avenue, $665, an assessment of $121 a lineal foot; Ples avenue, east side from Bennett street to York street, $527, an assessment of $121 a lineal foot; Patterson street, east side from Mark street to Fairground street, $2,245, an assessment of $124 a lineal foot; Jackson street, east side from Clinton street to 41st street, $679, an assessment of $121 a lineal foot; Pennsylvania avenue, west side from end of present walk to Mt. Vernon avenue, $625, an assessment of $126 a lineal foot.

Sidewalks.—On Mark street, from State street to Ballentine avenue, $2,969, an assessment of $321 a lineal foot; Herman street, from Davis street to Uncapher avenue, $1,820, an assessment of $179 a lineal foot; Owens street from Oak street to Leader street and thence to Silver street, $6,655, an assessment of $231 a lineal foot; Sugar street, from Davis street to Uncapher avenue, $675, an assessment of $108 a lineal foot; Leader street, from Owens street to the first alley north of the Erie railroad, $634, an assessment of $224 a lineal foot.

Paving.—Silver street resurfacing from Prospect street to the Hocking Valley railroad, $16,300, an assessment of $278 a lineal foot; Leader street resurfacing from Center street to Silver street, $5,200, an assessment of $185 a lineal foot; Ivey avenue, from Walnut street to Superior street, $13,615, an assessment of $855 a lineal foot; Prospect street, from Mark street to Fairground street, $34,525, an assessment of $952 a lineal foot; Delaware avenue, from the end of the paving to the entrance of McKinley park, $7,140, an assessment of $311 a lineal foot.

A committee of residents from Uncapher avenue was present and asked in regard to the paving of that thoroughfare. Councilman Merkel stated that the reason for the delay was on account of the high interest rate and large expense to the city in making the improvement and by reason of the difficulty in disposing of bonds. The city auditor was instructed to furnish information at the next meeting on the possibility of selling bonds and as to the rate.

Suggests Council Start Action.
Mrs. W. H. Hinklin addressed council in regard to the library question. She stated that she conferred with the members of the library board and that they believed it was right in the matter of not reporting to the city or turning lines in to the city and that in view of the fact that no compromise between the board and council was in sight she suggested that the council start action against the board and settle the question as soon as possible so that something could be accomplished.

An unsigned report represented to be a report from the board of library trustees was read. The report for the year 1921 showed receipts in the petty account of $431.25 and disbursements of $404.05 with a balance on hand of $15.99 at the start of the year leaving the balance on hand January 1, 1922, of $43.19. The rental collections amounted to $24.07 including a balance of $5.10 at the start of the year and the disbursements amounted to $237.94, leaving a balance of $12.12. In the items of expenditures was mentioned the sum of $13.85 for miscellaneous incidentals which was an item of the report that the councilmen wanted more light on. As a result it was decided to invite the members of the board to meet with the council and officials Wednesday evening at an adjourned session.

A resolution was adopted permitting W. J. Jones to construct a sewer lateral in Blaine avenue from the west line to connect with the south end of the sewer at a point seventy-five feet north of Bellefontaine avenue. The sewer is to be constructed under the direction of the service director, but without any expense to the city.

An ordinance authorizing the director of public safety to purchase 800 feet of new hose for the fire department was read three times and adopted.

To Install Lights.
In a communication to council the residents of Ivey avenue signified their desire to retain their present lighting system volunteering to repair the lamps providing the city would pay for the lighting. As it was the general opinion of the councilmen that the lights were not constructed to give satisfaction for any time a resolution was adopted authorizing the Columbus Delaware & Marion Electric company to install electric lights for the street as follows: one at the intersection of Prospect and Thew avenue, one at Thew avenue about midway between Prospect street and the park on Ivey at the entrance of the park on Thew avenue.

B. F. Winters made application to install a gasoline tank of 250-gallon capacity in front of his premises at No. 1198 east Center street, and Ray Gelbaugh made application to install a tank of 550-gallon capacity in front of his garage at No. 202 Superior street. Both were referred to the solicitor for the preparation of resolutions.

Following three readings a resolution was adopted providing for the construction of a sanitary sewer, storm sewer and cellar drain on Walnut street from Cleveland avenue to Delaware avenue.

Asks Use of Lot.
H. E. Early addressed council relative to a lot which he was supposed to have purchased in the Osgood addition from the Osgood company and which later developed to be the property of the city. He stated that he had improved the lot and would either buy or lease it from the city, but in the event he could not do this he asked for the use of the property until he could move his shrubbery. He was informed that he would not be molested as the city was not ready to open the street where he occupied the lot. The matter was referred to the street and alley committee.

Mayor George W. Neel's report was accepted. It showed the sum of $556.50 collected in fines in municipal cases and $27 in licenses during the month of February.

A petition for the paving of Fairground street from State street to Greenwood street was referred to the street and alley committee.

A petition for an electric light on Cleveland avenue at the first alley south of Walnut street was referred to the street light committee.

Where One Gallon
Equals Two—

Quality does tell! Measured by covering capacity and length of wear, one gallon of Hanna's Green Seal Paint proves itself equal to two gallons of so-called "cheap" paint. And there's a reason: viz.,—no paint can be better than the ingredients that go into it.

HANNA'S GREEN SEAL PAINT contains only highest grade ingredients, universally recognized as necessary in making good paint. If a paint is sold at a ridiculously low price it simply means that it is lacking in these necessary ingredients and contains cheap adulterants. The exact formula is printed on every package of Green Seal.

A paragrapher says Colonel Bryan can not get over the idea that he is leading the Democratic party. Well, it's a clutch that if the colonel isn't, nobody is.

Since reading about a former Filipino chief justice turning down a pension, we are from Missouri on the proposition that the Orient has acquired the ways of the Occident.

The Maryland legislature has before it a bill for consideration making it embezzlement for a wife to take money out of her husband's pocket. It's not necessary to reverse the thing. A husband would be wasting time to try to find his wife's pocket.

ADVENTUROUS SOULS.

The news despatches recently carried the story of the death of the intrepid explorer, Sir Ernest Shackleton, and his burial amid the frozen fastnesses of far South Georgia. The average man as he reads the little messages flashed from Montevideo gave little heed to the great adventurous soul that they revealed. But the soul was there if he had but the eyes to see. Shackleton was a type of the daring adventurer to whom worldly riches are as nothing compared with the joy of voyaging to unknown lands or wrestling from the white guardians of the frozen South the secrets of the ages. He was the type of man who would gladly exchange a lounge chair in a Piccadilly club for the deck of a South Sea trader or give up the jeweled splendor of Manhattan for a glimpse of the sun popping above the gleaming minarets of the Antarctic.

In the mad and sordid race for pelf and gain, it is heartening to know that the world still possesses such daring souls who retain their boyish love of adventure to the end.

When next we hear that the world is being engulfed in a maelstrom of materialism, let us think of Shackleton and the immortal voyage of the Quest.

"I'LL BET SHERMAN NEVER MADE OUT AN INCOME TAX REPORT!"

ARE YOU ANCHORED?

The prices of huge have advanced fifty per cent. in the last few weeks.

The cotton market is stronger, and there is expectation that we will soon see a material advance in the price.

The price of wheat has advanced materially of late.

Oats and hay are higher.

Corn, also, is higher.

Wool has advanced considerably in the last few weeks.

Bonds are higher.

The interest rate, or the discount rate, has been lowered.

The money situation is said to have eased up all over the country. There is enough money now for any legitimate business.

Isn't the thing we have been waiting for coming to pass?

It is just about time to celebrate.

Time to take off the long face and wear a broad smile.

It is time to get up early, stay up late and work hard.

Old Opportunity is back with us again.

He is knocking at the door.

He is anxious to come in and do business with us.

Come out of hiding and look around.

Come up from the storm cellar.

It is practically all over.

Wonderful how it has cleared up.

It is time now to hitch up and go.

The crowd will soon be off.

Are you going forward, or have you anchored?

We hope there is nothing in the story that fourteen co-eds of the Kansas state normal school, after an experiment covering several weeks, have decided that a girl can not live on sixty cents a day. We would hate to believe that schoolings were being wasted on girls not bright enough to know that without any experimentation.

FOUR YEARS MISSING.

It is four years since the Cyclops, United States naval collier, left the port of Barbados, never to be heard from again. She was on her way back to this country from South America and had stopped at Barbados. The war was then on and we were in it. The Cyclops was then on one of the regular ocean lines where there was plenty of traffic to and from the West Indian ports. The assumption was that she was only another of the numerous victims of German "frigate" attacks, although no enemy submarines had been observed in that vicinity. After the war, the German government officially disclaimed any knowledge of what happened to her. Our government conducted investigations along several different lines without result.

With the invention of "wireless" it was said there would be no more additions to the long list of missing ships. A vessel equipped with Marconi's device, if in trouble, could at least make its plight known, even if rescue should not arrive in time. The Cyclops, of course, was thus equipped, but whatever the form of disaster it was so sudden and unexpected as to give no time for sending out a message. In the case of an internal explosion some pieces of wreckage are generally found. But there has never been a trace of the Cyclops. There is a popular impression that "murder will out," but there have been many unsolved murders. And there have been many cases of the disappearance of ships that have never been explained.

With the passing of each year the likelihood of solving the mystery of the Cyclops becomes more remote. It is said that among the relatives of the 260 persons who composed her ship's company there are some who have never yet given up hope. It is a quality that "springs eternal in the human breast," but there was never less warrant for it, apparently, than in the case of the luckless Cyclops.

MAKE SAVINGS WORK.

In a thrifty bulletin, issued by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, it is asserted that "Man works for money. If he saves, money will work for him." Too many people overlook the truth of the statement that money saved will work for its owners. If a farmer had 100 acres of land and raised 2,000 bushels of wheat and wasted the proceeds in high living, so that he had neither seed nor the wherewith to buy for the next season, he would soon be a bankrupt. But if he saved seed for 120 acres and used part of his gains to clear another twenty acres, to be seed of the next season, he would be making the savings work for him. Or, if he turned all the wheat into money and saved part of the money, to be loaned to some one else who wanted to buy seed, the ultimate result would be the same. His savings would be working for him, and doing some one else good at the same time. It is the margin of saving that really measures the industrial progress and development of the world. If there had been no saving from the beginning of the human race, we would still be cave-men.

If for no other reason, the four-power treaty should appeal for the enemies it has made.

WHEN A PRESIDENT PLAYS.

[Cleveland Plain Dealer.] President Harding is in Florida for his first vacation since last summer. No addresses, no receptions, a minimum of official business, lots of golf—that's the program. It is a good program and the American people approve.

The presidency of the United States is the biggest and hardest job in the world. Only the most vigorous can survive it with reasonably good health. It is particularly trying to one of Mr. Harding's neighborly disposition which impels him to see as many people as possible and makes him the most gettable president Washington has seen in recent years.

Of all the president's big and multitudinous tasks, the biggest of them all is to protect his own health. No small part of Roosevelt's great value to the country came from his unbounded mental and physical vigor. He knew when and how to rest. He knew how important it was that he keep fit. He constantly radiated energy.

Not much of a president's time is his own; most of it belongs to the public. Matters of largest moment pass over his desk and, organized the tasks and distribute the burdens as one may, there remains a great mass of duties which must be attended to by the president personally. How to reduce these drains on the president's strength to a minimum is a problem always under consideration but never solved.

One recourse every president has is to get away from the executive offices as often as possible and play—just play. Mr. Harding loves golf, as his predecessor did. Roosevelt liked tennis. Horseback riding has been a favorite presidential pastime. Whatever it is—golf, tennis, riding—it is part of a president's duty to indulge in it as often as his other duties permit. Washington affords a variety of play opportunities available to the occupant of the White House. Occasionally, however, the president finds time to get away from Washington, away from the daily grind of business for a brief period of physical recuperation.

By such a vacation as President Harding is now enjoying in Florida he serves his millions of constituents as truly as when he sits at his desk administering the business of the greatest office in the world. It is one of his public obligations to play as often as he can. His biggest single task for the next three years is to keep himself fit.

CROWDS ATTEND ELKS' CHARITY EXPOSITION

Entertainment Features on Second and Third Floors.

KANGAROO COURT POPULAR STUNT

Vaudeville Program and Dancing Prove Popular Features—To Continue Through Week.

Attendance at the Elks Charity exposition Monday night was almost as great as that marking the opening night Saturday. All evening the crowds kept coming and going and the many attractive amusement features provided all drew their share of patronage.

The second floor is devoted exclusively to booths while the stunts and other entertainment features are staged on the third floor. Dancing is proving one of the most popular features of the exposition.

The dances are conducted on the summer park plan of "pay as you enter" and all evening there was no dearth of devotees of Terpsichore seeking to enter. Music is being furnished by the Dowler orchestra.

Another of the "stunts" which is proving quite popular is the "Kangaroo court." Flies were plastered on many offenders for various misdemeanors, such as appearing without coats or with sleeves rolled up. A nominal fine of fifteen cents is assessed the "guilty ones." Flies are paid without a murmur in this court.

The four vaudeville acts provided as part of the exposition are also going over big. Al Nuttle, musical clown, is an entertainer of more than ordinary ability. His comedy is of a high quality and he plays musical funnels, the saxophone, trombone, Swiss staff bells, xylophone, French lute, harp and organ.

Other entertainers on the bill are just as clever in their acts. The La Croix team stages interesting and difficult feats of aerial acrobatics and Miss Katherine Ashline scores a decided hit with her singing and folk dancing. Miss Louise Cody is also winning popularity as a woman rube. She sings well and puts over her comedy in side-splitting style. The exposition will continue the remainder of the week.

GACKENBACH HAS VERY LITTLE TO SAY ON TRIP

Taken at Once to Death Cell at Penitentiary.

SPEAKS ONLY WHEN HE IS QUESTIONED

Mrs. Gackenbach Gets Letter from Sheriff and Goes to Columbus Today.

John C. Gackenbach was delivered at the penitentiary in Columbus about 1 o'clock Monday afternoon by Sheriff Frank A. Washburn and Police Chief J. W. Thompson. The trip, which was made by automobile, was void of events of excitement and there was little conversation on the part of the prisoner.

Shortly after the automobile reached the outskirts, Gackenbach displayed a noticeable change of manner. He only spoke when some question or remark was directed to him and then after a little hesitancy. He seemed to be in a trance-like state and his answers were delayed. When asked if he was not arrested in Meadville once on a charge of shooting a woman, he replied that he never remembered of being arrested for such an offense.

On reaching the penitentiary Gackenbach was taken at once to the death chamber. He shook hands with the officers who took him down and with E. C. Mackan and D. A. Washburn, who accompanied them. As he bade them goodbye he remarked, "I suppose the next time you will see me I will be in my coffin."

Mrs. Gackenbach, the mother of the prisoner, who arrived here about the time he was leaving and did not get to see him, secured a letter of introduction from the sheriff and left this morning for Columbus.

Greb Wins Fight.

New York, March 14.—"Bring on Georges Carpentier and then Jack Dempsey," today was the battle cry of Harry Greb, Pittsburgh light heavyweight.

By his tantalizing victory over St. Paul Tommy Gibbons in their fifteen round battle in Madison Square Garden last night, Greb won the right to be matched with Carpentier to fight for a chance at Dempsey's crown.

Harry's victory was tantalizing because throughout the entire fifteen rounds in his awkward and effective way he side-stepped the sleeping potion residing in Tommy's gloved hands at the same time coming in time after time and peppering the slugging Tommy with rights and lefts to the head, face and body.

There was no doubt about the justice of the judges' decision, which gave the bout to Greb. Gibbons might have won the bout at any minute, with one crushing blow, but 13,300 persons who packed the garden waited in vain for the crash to land. That it never did land was due to Greb's tactics of dazzling the St. Paul batter with his speed and stamina.

Last Night's Fights.

Zanesville, March 14.—Harry Krohn, Akron, and "Soldier" Buck, Louisville, fought a fast twelve-round draw. "Farmer" Stewart, Newark, had all the best of an eight-round go with "Kid" Charles, Akron.

Indianapolis, March 14.—Bryan Downey, of Cleveland, decisively defeated Frank Carbone, of New York, here last night. Downey had far the best of seven of the ten rounds and the other three were even. Carbone was rushed through the ropes and off the platform in the first round but was not hurt.

No Bonus for Babe Ruth.

New Orleans, March 14.—Announcement by Manager Miller Huggins that Babe Ruth will not get a $500 bonus nor any other kind of a bonus for every home run he clouts this season, featured Yankee news yesterday. Colonel Ruppert, in New York, said Babe is working on a straight salary.

San Antonio, March 14.—George Kelly, star first baseman and leading home run hitter of the National league, was on a Giant contract today, but terms were not made known.

Dallas, Texas, March 14.—With rain again threatened today after the heavy downpour yesterday, members of the Cleveland baseball squad were getting only inside practice today, but the players are Not Getting in Shape.

Tampa, March 14.—Some of the Nationals are not rounding into shape as speedily as Clark Griffith would like.

Walter Johnson, "the Washington pitching staff," is sick. Joe Judge, the regular first baseman, is not in good shape. He fainted yesterday during a stiff workout, due to the effects of a previous illness, the club doctor said.

BOWLING

Bowlers Cover Wide Area.

Toledo, March 14.—It will be a far stretch of territory represented in team competition in the American Bowling tourney here tonight, the "far" east being Uleia, New York, and the "far" west being Racine, Wisconsin.

Aside from these cities, Cleveland, Aurora, Illinois, Detroit, Chicago, Marion, the home town of President Harding, Columbus, Ohio, Auburn, New York, and Huntington, Indiana, have team entries.

There are several star fives in these entries, prominent among them being the Horlicks, of Racine; William J. Thierly's, of Detroit; Marion Athletic club, Marion; Favorite Knolls, of Cleveland, and Eastern Markets, of Detroit.

Yesterday's pastime was brimful of feature rolling on the last squad, Detroit bowlers carrying away a major portion of the honors, through hitting high into several of the monies.

Malleable Takes Two.

American Malleable pin smashers took two out of three games from the Silk Mills quintet bowling on the Y. M. C. A. alleys in City league competition Monday night. Sensational work of Whilps featured the match. He shattered season records for three games with a total of 660. Opening with a 207 mark he came back with 231 and finished with 222. The scores:

Lura Shampoo is in a Class by Itself—

The Rediscovered Tonic of Ancient Egypt

WE know of no other shampoo that combines henna and a liquid soap in one solution.

It is far superior to other shampoos, its strength lying in its solution, which, being made entirely from pure cocoanut oil and other salutary ingredients, insures a greater solvent of the greasy and oily matters that accumulate on the scalp than any other preparation. Its hygienic and medicinal properties make it a most effective hair and scalp tonic.

It eradicates the causes of hair and scalp troubles and gives new life and beauty to the hair of those who use it regularly.

On account of the strength of the solution you will get a much heavier and more cleansing lather than is possible with other shampoos, which makes your shampooing expense very small. Try it today. Lura Henna Shampoo, 8-oz. bottle; Lura Ideal Shampoo (without Henna), 6-oz. bottle. At all druggists.

NOTE: To insure what Lura will do for your hair, Lura Laboratories Co., Chicago, will send sample test bottle upon receipt of the coupon or stamp to cover packing and postage. No state and state which product is desired. Lura with Henna or without.

You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four corners of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

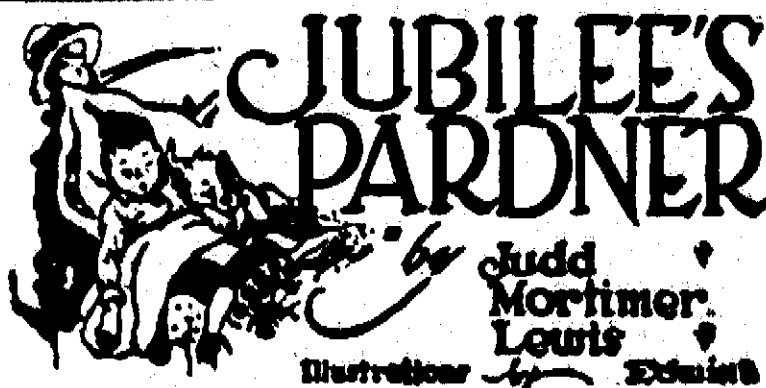

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, shiny, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

LIMBERS UP YOUR SORE STIFF JOINTS

WEATHER exposure and hard work bring pains and aches in muscles and joints. Have a bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy and apply freely. Penetrates without rubbing. You will find at once a comforting sense of warmth which will be followed by a relief from the soreness and stiffness of aching joints.

JUBILEE'S PARDNER
by Judd Mortimer
Illustrations by Louis Edmister

I bet Skunk won't munky with me any more. I bet his father is glad to pay his mother antimony money so he won't have to live in the same house with Skunk.

When I had got dressed and had let Jubilee down by his rope and had went out with the milk pail and done a couple of handprings and turned Jubilee over a couple of times to learn him that I want him to do everything he sees me do, I was milking the cow and Skunk come crawling through the manure hole all at once and I just looked at him and did not stop milking, and he has got a shanty over one eye where I paled him, and he went over and sot with his back against the side of the horse's stall and grinned at me.

After a while he said, "You can sure fight," and when I only scowled at him he said: "You come at a fella so fast he don't have a chance to guard. He might as well try to spar with a rain and keep any of the drops from landing on him." Then I bent up the tit I was working on and gave him a squirt in the face before he knew what was coming, and he got red, but he laughed and then I laughed.

When I got done milking I showed him my porous plaster which has been riding on my back for a long time, and he pulled it up and my skin went with it, and then all at once he hollered that Jubilee was drinking out of the milk pail, and that made me jump, but then I remembered and told him that the milk had not been strained yet, and he thought that was a pretty good joke on him. He sot out on the step and waited whilst I el breakfast and then we went out to the brickyard to see how the image of me was getting along, and someone had filled it with broken bricks and dirt, and I can lick the fella that done it and I bet he knows it.

When school let out we all went over to the slink factory and went under it because Skunk had never been there before and he said he never saw so many rats, and he wanted to stay there and peg rocks at them till dark as fast as they showed their noses out of their holes, but we could see from the first few pegs that he was not much of a pegger, so then I asted him if he would not like to have us all come over to his house some night after supper and play with him, and we all went around to his house while he asted his mother, and she stuck her face out of the door and said the place for boys to play was out doors.

And she stuck her face out of the door and said the place for boys to play was out doors.

I was going to fix it to take Bunt around there who wears the old clothes that his father wears out working in the slink factory. Skunk was sore about it and he said as soon as he is big enough to earn money he is going to pay her antimony and live somewhere else like his father does. When I was eating supper my father asted me what I done after school every day and I told him "Nothing," and he said it seems to take me till dark every day to do it. I went to bed.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have— Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician. Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During those years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color. These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headache, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them

A beauty secret 3,000 years old

The use of palm and olive oils to keep the skin fresh and smooth is nothing new, but a secret known to pretty girls as far back as Cleopatra.

Her Palmolive came in skins and jars, and she had to do her own mixing. But the beautifying cleanser she achieved was the inspiration of the mild, soothing blend science produces today.

Take a lesson from Cleopatra, who kept her youthful beauty long after girlhood's days had passed. She used cosmetics to embellish and enhance her charm, just as women do today. But the foundation was a skin thoroughly and healthfully cleansed from all clogging and dangerous accumulations.

Soothes and beautifies

Palmolive is blended from the same palm and olive oils Cleopatra used—they are the mildest, most soothing ingredients science has been able to discover.

The scientific combination of these rare oils produces a smooth, creamy, lotion-like lather. Palmolive soothes and beautifies while it cleanses. It keeps the skin of the face and body beautifully soft and smooth.

The importance of thorough cleansing

It is absolutely essential to complexion beauty to wash your face thoroughly once a day. Palmolive makes this cleansing doubly beneficial by its mildness.

The profuse, creamy lather penetrates each tiny pore, removing the deposits of dirt, oil and perspiration which cause clogging and enlargement.

Such cleansing is the secret of fresh, smooth skins, as results prove. It stimulates circulation, keeps the texture fine, smooth and youthful.

The woman who fears that washing will age her skin has used the wrong soap. She will change her mind once she tries Palmolive.

Don't neglect the body

Care of the complexion only begins with the face. Your neck is just as noticeable for beauty or the lack of it, arms and shoulders should be kept white and smooth.

Use Palmolive for bathing and these results are accomplished. It does for your body what it does for the face.

If this seems extravagance, remember the modest price. The firm, long wearing cake of generous size costs but ten cents.

Our price secret

If Palmolive were made in small quantities it would be a very expensive soap. Palm and Olive oils are most costly soap ingredients, and come from overseas.

But the popularity which requires enormous production has reduced the price to that of ordinary soaps. The Palmolive factories work day and night, the rare oils are imported in such vast volume that the manufacturing cost is reduced.

Thus Palmolive, priced according to quality, would cost at least 25 cents, is yours for a modest 10 cents. You can afford this greatest of all luxuries for every toilet purpose.

GREATEST TRIUMPHS ARE THOSE OF THE SOUL

Dean of Ohio Northern Says to Smart Class of Epworth.

MAN IS MEASURED BY SOUL, NOT HIS STATURE

Declares Dean Davidson—Nearly 200 Members Attend a Monthly Meeting.

A man is measured not by his stature but by his soul, declared Professor John W. Davidson, dean of Ohio Northern university, who addressed the monthly meeting of the Stuart Sunday-school class at Epworth M. E. church Monday evening. Professor Davidson spoke on "The Measure of a Man."

He based his subject on a four-line quotation from Harry Van Dyke, sent him in response to a question directed to the poet relative to what constitutes the measure of a man. Mr. Van Dyke sent him the following lines:

"To learn to think without confusion clearly.

To love your fellowmen sincerely,
To act from honest motives purely,
To trust in God and Heaven dearly."

Professor Davidson, characterized Mr. Van Dyke as the greatest living poet, with the possible exception of Rudyard Kipling.

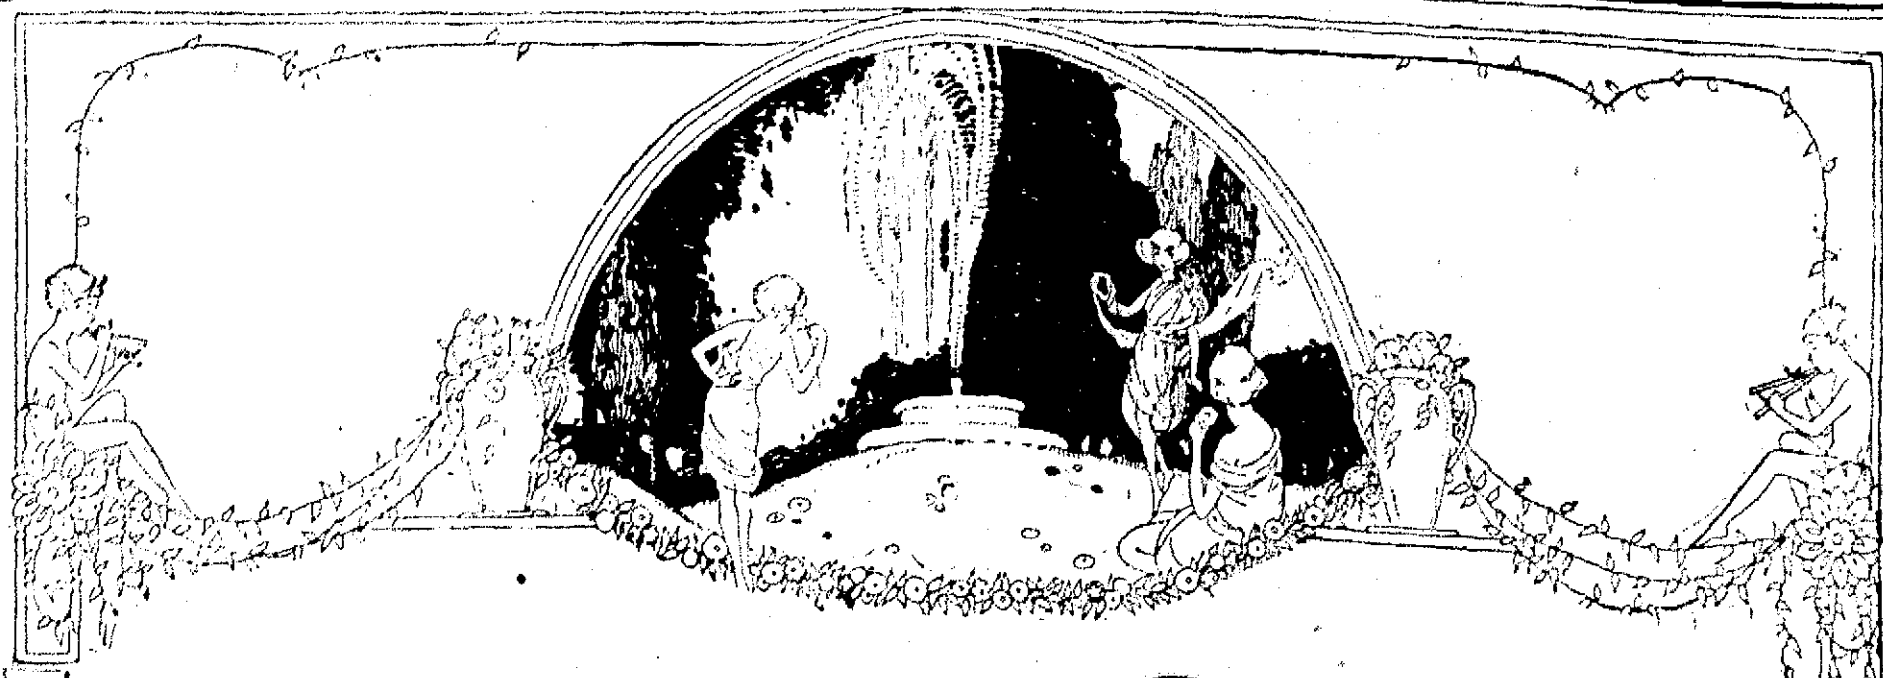

Greatest Triumphs of Soul.
Professor Davidson related personal experiences with Roosevelt, McKinley and other great men. He pointed out that in every instance their greatest triumphs were triumphs of the soul. "McKinley's greatest moment came when the hand of death was near and he murmured, 'Nearer My God To Thee,'" Professor Davidson declared.

"Washington's greatness probably was enhanced by his stature, so also was that of Lincoln, but their true greatness came from their inner qualities," the speaker said. "You pass me on the street and say 'I see Professor Davidson.' You don't see me. You see only my outer shell."

Earl P. Smart acted as chairman of the meeting which was attended by nearly 200 members of the class. Professor Davidson was introduced by John H. Clark, an intimate friend and a member of the board of trustees of Ohio Northern university.

J. E. Oliphant, president of the class, spoke briefly at the close of Professor Davidson's address. A series of songs was sung by the entire class and two solos, which were highly appreciated, were contributed by J. W. Davidson. The dinner was served by members of Epworth Circle, No. 6.

A special airplane, with a cabin containing desks, typewriter and other office equipment, has been ordered by a London business man with big interests in Paris, Brussels and other continental cities.

URGE BUILDING CODE FOR GOOD OF ALL

At Weekly Meeting of Good Government Association.

The regular weekly meeting of the Marion County Good Government association was held at the Lusk Bee cafeteria last night. A large number of measures were discussed. The building code was again discussed, all the speakers urging a code that would be for all the people of Marion and one that would be equal to the building codes of other cities. The association voted to lend its full strength to the efforts now being made by the general committee which is drawing up a tentative code which will be acted upon by the city council.

A member addressed the meeting in regard to a case of destitution in the city and the association voted to aid if its assistance could be needed.

Further plans were outlined for the banquet of the association which will be held March 27 and at which several prominent educators have been invited to make addresses. The resignation of W. G. Gilliam as treasurer was accepted and J. H. Whitcomb appointed to that office. In his letter of resignation, Mr. Gilliam pleaded the press of other duties as the reason for his action in giving up the office.

Prior to adjournment an impromptu entertainment was held, several members relating humorous stories and anecdotes. The meeting of the general committee on the building code will be held in the Harding High school tonight and all members of the committee have been urged to be present as some important sections of the tentative code will be read and acted upon.

Be Your Own LANDLORD

Build a home and be your own landlord. Be independent. Give your family the benefit of pleasant environments and a contented neighborhood.

Why worry along for a year by paying exorbitant rent?

With lowered costs of material and labor it is decidedly cheaper to build than it was a year ago.

Let us demonstrate to you how easily this can be done.
